ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY KENTUCKY FRIDAY JULY 22 1914

VOLUME XXXIV, NO. 41

LAMSDORFF CALLED DOWN BY CZAR FOR DETENTION OF NEUTRALS.

Nicholas' Attitude May Result in Peaceful Adjustment of Trouble.—England is Warlike.—Fight in Progress.

(Cablegram.)
The Associated Press has just been informed that Emperor Nicholas, in an interview with Count Lamsdorff, the foreign minister, expressed his displeasure at the turn events had taken and at the possibility of complications with Great Britain arising out of the detention of British ships by the Russian volunteer fleet steamers in the Red Sea. This pacific attitude, if the report be correct, will doubtless lead to an immediate and amicable adjustment of the difficulties.

BATTLE IN PROGRESS.

LONDON, July 21.—The Standard correspondent with the first Japanese army, cabling under date of July 19, says:

"Our right flank has been engaged since morning."

The correspondent of the Times, with Gen. Kuroki's army, under date of July 19, confirms the Standard correspondent's report.

ENGLAND MAD.

LONDON, July 21.—The Associated Press has interviewed many prominent persons connected and in close touch with the government relative to the seizure of British vessels by the steamers of the Russian volunteer fleet in the Red Sea. As a result of these inquiries there is shown to be a remarkable hostile feeling against Russia of a strength and by now almost without precedent since the Crimean war. Even the soldiers who have been in the service for many years and who openly deplore the haste with which thought Great Britain had plunged into the Transvaal war, last night frankly declared for a policy of reprisal against what is regarded here as Russia's violation of treaties and her piratical attack on British commerce.

The warlike tone of such papers as the Times, the Standard and the Morning Post and the Daily Telegraph, which, in national crises hitherto almost invariably advised caution, has its inevitable effect. There has been stirred up all classes in the United Kingdom and the strength of which the government itself can scarcely gauge.

JUDGE UPTON MUIR DROWNED WHILE BATHING AT CAPE MAY.

Prominent Louisville Jurist, While on Vacation, Loses Life in Presence of Many Spectators.

(Special to New Era)

CAPE MAY, N. J., July 21.—Judge Upton W. Muir, of Louisville, was drowned while bathing yesterday morning in about two feet of water, when he was seen to fall face downward. His body was found floating, but all efforts to resuscitate him were without avail. The verdict of the coroners jury was accidental drowning.

(Ing.)

Judge Muir was one of Louisville's most prominent citizens and was born in that city Dec. 20, 1838. He was educated at the University of Virginia. He practiced law with great success and in 1901 was elected president of the board of councilmen. In 1902 he was appointed judge of the common pleas court, third division and was reelected for six years last November.

GOOD JAPANESE WORK.

Desperate Assault Met With a Fierce Resistance.

(Cablegram.)

LONDON, July 19.—A correspondent of the Times at Gen. Kuroki's headquarters says that the Japanese losses during the fighting at Motien Pass on July 17 were trifling.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 19.—Gen. Kuropatkin reports that Lieut. Gen. Count Keller lost over 1,000 killed or wounded in an attack on Motien Pass July 17.

TOKIO, July 19.—Gen. Kuroki reports that two divisions of the Russian army made a desperate assault on Motien Pass at dawn July 17, but were repulsed. Casualties were not stated.

At 5 o'clock Sunday morning, a heavy fog veiling their movements, two divisions of Russians, commanded by Lieut. Gen. Keller, made an assault on the Japanese positions at Motien Pass. Gen. Kuroki adds that the Russians assailed all the Japanese positions at Motien Pass, and in its vicinity, desperately. The Japanese resisted stubbornly, repulsed the Russians and pursued them for a considerable distance westward.

Gen. Kuroki, in his report, praises the valor of his men.

Macedonia News.

Macedonia, Ky., July 21.—Elder John W. McCarroll and Bradley Ray, of this place, attended the camp meeting at Eddyville Monday and Tuesday of this week.

At Saratoga, Lyon county, there are still to be seen signs of the war between the states—bullet holes in the M. E. church made while the battle was being fought over the Saratoga spring. In this engagement there were seven men killed.

Mr. Spencer McChesney, a prominent citizen and farmer of Caldwell county, died at his home near Princeton on Monday, July 18th. He was well known as a well-to-do farmer and had a host of friends in both Caldwell and Christian counties. We extend our heart-felt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. John O. Menser, of Clardy, and Mrs. Texas McDonald, of Macedonia, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the public road near G. W. Davis' on July 19, Elder Davis officiating. Peace and happiness to the bride and groom is the best wish of the "White Man."

We chronicle with regret the fact that our old friend Noah Orten is very ill from a complication of diseases.

There will be a picnic July 23d at J. D. Capps' chalybeate springs. It promises to be one of the best of the season.

W. H. Thomas and family, Mr. Capps, Misses Sue Cline and Ida Capps and Dr. Alexander were the guests of John W. McCarroll on last Sunday.

HOW HE WAS HURT BY ARBITRATION

Walter Maddox Dragged Questions in Dispute Will Be Settled.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Walter L. Maddox, of Hopkinsville, who was perhaps fatally injured at Springfield yesterday, will be operated upon at once. The L. & N. surgeon will amputate his leg above the knee.

Maddox is a brakeman on the Louisville & Nashville train and yesterday morning in making a switch in the north yards at Springfield after cutting off the cabooses, he got on the next car and the engineer in suddenly taking up the slack of the train threw Maddox off, and in falling the cabooses ran upon him, dragging him for a distance of twenty feet. His left leg was ground to a jelly nearly to the hip and his face and hands so badly lacerated that he is scarcely recognizable and he is otherwise injured internally.

GROWING COTTON

Our readers will remember that early in the spring quite a number of our best farmers living in the southwest part of the county concluded to try a cotton crop, and to this end extra preparations were made by them to try the experiment this year, says the Mayfield Messenger.

During the past few days we have seen quite a number of farmers who have cotton crops, and they say it is in good condition and that they believe they will make a good average.

"A SECRET."

One great secret of youth and beauty for the young woman or the mother is the proper understanding of her womanly system and well-being. Every woman, young or old, should know herself and her physical condition. A good way to arrive at this knowledge is to get a good doctor. Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., has written a book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," by R. V. Pierce, M. D., which can readily be procured by sending twenty-one cents in one-cent stamps for paper-bound volume, or thirty-one cents for cloth-bound copy, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y.

The change from maidenhood to womanhood is one that involves the whole body. The structure of a woman's body is peculiarly feminine. It is not until the system is properly adjusted that a woman can be healthy. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is just the medicine for the female system.

"I cannot express my thanks for the benefit I have received from Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. Julia Weir, of Cambridge, Mass., and feel that a perfect cure has been effected. I feel like thanking you for the kind and fatherly letters which you wrote."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was the first exclusively woman's tonic on the market. It has sold more largely in the medicine for women. Do not let the drug store persuade you to try some compound that has not had the test of so many years' success.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

CHRISTIAN THIRD IN AMOUNT OF TOBACCO RAISED IN 1903.

Increase of 3,000,000 Pounds in State.—New Law is Wanted.

State Agricultural Commissioner Hubert Vreeland has secured from reports made to his department and from the reports of county assessors some interesting statistics regarding the tobacco crop of Kentucky for 1903, showing both the acreage and the number of pounds as nearly as this information can be secured, and a comparison with the previous year. The showing made is an acreage of 248,890, and 198,880,831 pounds in the crop. The crop of 1902 was 190,716,888 pounds, an increase this year of more than 8,000,000 pounds. The commissioner intends to inaugurate a move before the next general assembly looking to the better securing of statistics of crops throughout the state through the assessing officers, whose reports as now made are incomplete. The agricultural department has many requests from over the country for information regarding the Kentucky crops, which cannot, under the present system, be promptly and correctly answered.

Out of the 119 counties in the state Christian stands third in point of production, being surpassed only by Daviess and Graves.

Herewith is given the acreage of tobacco in this and neighboring counties, and the number of pounds which is reported as raised in each:

Counties	acres	pounds

BAIL TO BE ALLOWED MACK HERN WHO SHOT AND KILLED HIS FATHER

Judge Fowler Cites Extenuating Circumstances and the Prisoner's Physical Condition.—Amount Has Not Been Fixed.

EXAMINING TRIAL WAS CONCLUDED AT NOON.

After hearing evidence and arguments in the examining trial of Mack Hern charged with the murder of his father, Jim Hern, County Judge Fowler, after reviewing the facts in the killing and dwelling on the enormity of the crime, stated that he would allow the prisoner bail in the view of young Hern's apparent physical frailty and certain extenuating circumstances connected with the case.

The matter of the amount was left open for the present and the motion will likely be argued tomorrow. The suggestion of the counsel of the defense that $500 would be sufficiently large was followed by the court's statement that such a sum could not be regarded as adequate.

The testimony introduced in the examining trial brought to light little that had not been detailed in the New Era's account of the murder. The quarrel of father and son prior to the killing were aired in court and it was shown that both men had been drinking. The defense sought to prove that Jim Hern had been extremely abusive to his son, and had applied vulgar and insulting epithets in speaking of the boy's mother, the elder man's divorced wife. It was also testified that Jim Hern had chased the young man out of the saloon twice, once with an ice pick and once with a knife.

According to the evidence, about three quarters of an hour elapsed after the first encounter before the father shot was fired. Mack Hern testified that he had a pistol in his pocket when earlier in the evening his father had run him out of the saloon and that he made no effort to use it. He said he went to the saloon to see about getting a bucket of beer and that when he entered the door his brother motioned him to leave, but he had not seen, started towards him with a knife, and, fearing he would be killed, he fired. Hayden Hern, his brother, gave in similar testimony, and Frank Graves, who was in a rear room, said he heard Jim Hern call his son a vile name and, with a threat, start towards him. Three other eye witnesses said Jim Hern was drawing a glass of water from the cooler when Mack Hern came into the saloon. They heard him make no threat and saw no hostile demonstration. They said they saw no knife in his hand. Judge James Breathitt and Judge C. H. Bush appeared for the defense and County Attorney Otto Anderson represented the commonwealth, and they ably argued the case.

County Attorney Anderson says he has learned since the trial was completed that young Hern borrowed the revolver with which he killed his father just a short time before he returned to the saloon and that he did not have a weapon at the time of the second quarrel. The pistol was gotten by Mack Hern from "Honey" Almy.

VERY SMALL CLUE

LEADS TO CAPTURE OF AN ALLEGED MURDERER.

A Negro Woman Who Killed Her Child Is Traced By a Calico Dress.

On May 4th some children, while playing on the mountain west of Kuttawa cemetery and near the mountain drive, found the remains of an infant concealed in some brush and leaves and no clue could be found to the mysterious and ghastly find, says the Kuttawa Times.

The coroner's jury returned the verdict of death by foul means and so far as the public knew the matter was at an end, but the ever watchful eyes and active mind of Marshal W. H. McCullum were turned on the case and as a result the mother of the child was arrested in Kuttawa Friday last and placed in jail on a charge of murder.

Willie Cherry, colored, who is to answer the charge before the court was born and raised near Dyousburg and for a year previous to the birth of her child worked in Dawson. Just before the child was born she moved to Princeton, where she has a cousin living, and there became a mother and a murderer.

The child was born in a toilet closet where later McCullum found evidence of the crime in blood and brains on a seat. Taking the murdered baby the mother wrapped it in paper and a piece of a calico dress and placing the ghastly bundle in a basket brought it to Kuttawa and spent the night with old Aunt Susan Crumbaugh (col). In the morning she took the corpse and carried it up on the mountain where she thought to hide forever all trace of her bloody deed, but fate caused her to leave a part of the calico dress in Princeton, and from that and smaller clues Marshal McCullum traced the woman to Dyousburg, and thence to Kuttawa, where she had come to work as a servant and the arrest followed.

The woman at first denied everything, but on route to jail she admitted being the mother of the child and admitted bringing it to Kuttawa and placing it where it was found, but claims it was born dead. The body, however, showed signs of violence and evidence is very strong against her.

Marshal McCullum deserves much credit for working up so important a case from so small a clue as a calico dress and this arrest goes on record as one of many important ones made by him while an officer. Such men the public needs and appreciates.

BAIL FOR W. E. NEAL

MOTION IS SUSTAINED BY JUDGE PRYOR.

Bond Fixed at $5,000 and Will Likely Be Given Without Difficulty.

Motion for bail of William E. Neal, charged with the murder of James K. Shrader, was sustained by Judge Pryor in the criminal division of the circuit court at Louisville Saturday and the defendant's bond fixed at five thousand dollars. In passing on the case Judge Pryor was careful not to comment upon the character of the evidence introduced because he was merely considering a preliminary matter. J. T. O'Neal, Neal's counsel, announced that the bond would be supplied as soon as Neal's friends, who did not live in Louisville, could be communicated with. He believed they would reach the city Monday, at which time Judge Pryor said he would pass upon their eligibility as bondmen.

Mr. O'Neal said that the defendant would have no difficulty in supplying the amount of bail required. On last Wednesday Judge Pryor heard proof and argument as to the question of bail. At that time only a few of the circumstances surrounding the killing were developed. Neal shot and killed Shrader in the bar of the Capital Hotel Feb. 1, 1904. He claims that Shrader was intimate with his wife.

STREET LIGHTS NOW SHINING

Half the City Was Illuminated Sunday Night. --Plant Rebuilt Just Eight Weeks After the Fire.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Citizens of Hopkinsville are rejoicing over the rebuilding of the electric light plant. Just eight weeks after the flames had consumed the power house and wrecked the costly machinery, the street lights in one part of town shone out last night and it is expected that the entire city will be lighted this evening.

The company has spared no expense or pains to replace the plant as soon as it was possible. Two new are light machines have been installed and the city divided into two districts. One, which will be known as the western district, takes in that part of the town which lies west of the river and north of Seventh street. The eastern district includes the remainder of the city. The western district was lighted Sunday night. It will be eight or ten days before the machines for making the incandescent lights will be in operation. The new plant will be superior to the old one in many respects, but it may be some time before every thing is in perfect running order.

DEAD BODY OF KENT LOOMIS IS WASHED ASHORE IN DEVONSHIRE

WAS HE THROWN FROM STEAMER?

A SENSATIONAL STORY

Alleged He Was Killed To Aid American Negro To Get a Throne.

(Cablegram.) LONDON, July 18.—The body of Frederick Kent Loomis, brother of the American assistant secretary of state, was washed ashore today on the coast of Devonshire.

On a Mission. Loomis left Washington, D. C., some time ago on a mission to Abyssinia, carrying the commercial treaty with that country.

At Portsmouth, England, he mysteriously disappeared.

Evidence is gathering that he was thrown overboard because he was one of the obstacles between an American negro and the throne of Abyssinia. The stories that he fell in love with a New York girl while aboard the steamer and followed her when she landed and that he was drunk and fell overboard have both been exploded, and the hundreds of detectives at work on the case now see the outline of a gigantic plot.

FRANCIS B. LOOMIS, First Assistant Secretary of State and Brother of Kent Loomis.

To Capture a Crown. The first step toward carrying out this plot, they say, involved Loomis' life as a detail, the life of King Menelik of Abyssinia as the next step and the crowning of a brilliant daring American negro as king of the richest and most powerful country in Ethiopia as its climax.

W. H. Ellis, a negro millionaire, formerly of San Antonio, Texas, but more recently of Chicago and New York, is the party who is believed by the detectives to have caused Loomis' death in order to secure the treaty that the latter was carrying to King Menelik, of Abyssinia.

Ellis, bearing with him the treaty, has sailed from the city of Marseilles for Djibouti, Africa. In person this giant American negro will deliver to Menelik the treaty with the United States and to the barbarian king Ellis will be as great as the country which he represents.

Ambition Unbounded. After Ellis had sailed from Marseilles it was discovered that for years this negro had aspired to become a king.

Slowly the people interested in the case learned the history of the giant black man whose power, influence and persuasiveness have led him upward—perhaps to a throne.

His ambitions, they have learned, knew no bounds. He strove to establish an empire in Mexico. He strove to rule Porto Rico. Within the last few weeks he boasted that within a year he would command $150,000,000 and be ruler of the richest country in Africa. To those he knew best he openly declared that

PEOPLE AND THINGS

WHO WAS IT, MR. SHERLOCK HOLMES?

It sounded like a woman's voice and Attorney Herman Southall answered the question over the new telephone with obsequious politeness.

"Is that Mr. Southall?"

"It is, madam."

"I have something of a private and personal nature to say to you, but I am afraid I might be overheard."

"This phone, madam, is secret. I have the positive assurance of President Cooper to that effect."

"You are sure there is no danger of anybody eavesdropping?"

"None, at all, madam," said Mr. Southall. "None at all. Say what you please."

"Well, then, go to the d—l," giggled the voice, and Herman savagely rung off.

Judge Hanbery, who is a good mimic, told a friend today that he had a joke on Southall.

WANTED ALL THERE WAS.

Collier's Weekly tells a good story about old Pete Browning, at one time a member of the Hopkinsville baseball club and in his prime a popular player in Louisville. When he was leading the league in batting his admirers there bought a handsome watch for him. A committee went around to his house, and the spokesman made a speech and handed him the timepiece.

Browning listened attentively, though he was deaf as an adder, and did not understand a word that was said. When the watch was offered to him he took it in his hand, turned it over, and looked at it intently, and then asked:

"Where is the chain?"

BRILEGROOM WAS MISSING.

Halle Ermine Rives is telling this characteristic darkey story.

"Georgiana Missouri, the dusky maid who waves the peacock fly-brush at meal times in our dining room, had just come from the wedding of a friend. She was telling us about it."

"You'd oughter bin dar, Miss Halle," she said. "It wuz the lubliest weddin' flowahs, and bridesmaids all dressed up in white, and de bes' man looking fine as fiddle, and de church all full ob peepul a-waltin', and de bride in her o'ange wreath—"

"But, Georgiana Missouri, I interrupted, 'what about the bridegroom? You haven't said a word about him.'"

"Georgiana Missouri rolled her eyes until they looked 'pretty much all whites."

"Law, Miss Halle," said she; "would yer b'lieve it, dat black nigger, he nebber showed up a-tall."

TIME TAKEN. UP EATING.

Mose Eib says that he attended every session of the St. Louis convention, but he wasn't sure that Webb Bell took it all in.

"You see," said Mose, "Webb took a room at one of the best hotels in the city and then went to inquire about meals."

"What are the eatin' hours in this here house?" he said to the clerk.

"Breakfast," the clerk answered, "from 7 to 11; lunch, 11 to 3; dinner, 3 to 8; supper, 8 to 12."

"Jerusalem," said Webb, "when am I goin' to get time to go to the convention?"

HER GUESS WAS WRONG.

At an entertainment the other night, a young man came in and made his way to the hostess, greeting her and apologizing for his lateness.

London Papers Speak Generously of Oom Paul's Remarkable Career.

(Cablegram.) PRETORIA, Transvaal July 15.—Gen. Louis Botha, the former chief of the Boer forces, received a cablegram, announcing Mr. Kruger's death. The announcement called forth general expressions of regret, especially because the ex-president died among foreigners. The flags on all the government buildings are at half-mast.

Mr. Kruger will be buried beside former presidents of the Transvaal.

unless his will has provided otherwise. Memorial services will be held July 17 in all the Dutch churches. Gen. Botha has ordered that all the Boers shall wear mourning until after the funeral, which, it is expected, will be attended by representatives of every district in the Transvaal.

British Comment.

LONDON, July 15.—The announcement of Mr. Kruger's death was the main feature of all the papers here. It was accompanied by lengthy sketches of his career. All the papers devoted editorials to the president's demise, refraining from anything denunciatory and speaking generously of his remarkable characteristics. The Westminster Gazette said:

"Enough time has elapsed between the end of our long struggle with Mr. Kruger and his death to enable us to pay a sincere tribute to his memory. His stubborn conservatism and tenacity to the last cause were in many respects heroic."

The Pall Mall Gazette remarked: "Englishmen can afford to give him his due. History will be unable to deny that he was a great man."

The Evening Standard says: "A great figure has now passed finally from the world's stage. However baneful an influence he may have exercised on the affairs of South Africa, most Englishmen will certainly concede that his abilities entitled him to the fullest measure of respect."

COMPLETELY COMPLETED. YOUNG FARMER IS INSTANTLY KILLED BY LIGHTNING STROKE.

NOTHING IS LACKING AT WORLD'S FAIR.

And Living Rates at St. Louis Are Remarkably Reasonable.

Hopkinsville people, returning from the World's Fair, are enthusiastic over the greatness of the exposition and they insist that reports are given that say the fair is incomplete. Without exception, the main exhibit buildings were finished before the day of opening, April 30, and since then many state and foreign buildings and exhibition structures that were not finished at that time have been completed, with the single exception of one small building for which the construction was let only three weeks ago. The House of Ho-o-Hoo, which was destroyed by fire a few days after the opening, has been rebuilt and will be reopened in a few days.

Had Taken Refuge From Storm In Woods.—His Brother Was Shocked and Remained Unconscious For Several Hours.

During a heavy thunder, rain and wind storm which passed over east Christian Tuesday afternoon, Ewell Minor, a young farmer living between Fairview and Pembroke, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. His brother, who was with him, was shocked into unconsciousness and did not revive for several hours. The men were at work in the field, but when the storm came up took refuge in the woods nearby. The dead man was about twenty-four years of age and was well known and highly respected. The corn crop in the section visited by the storm was badly damaged by being blown down by the wind.

IMPORTANT RULING

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 19.—In response to the request of the superintendent of public instruction for an opinion in regard to the division of the public money for school purposes Attorney General N. B. Hays today gave it as his legal decision that the school fund is entitled to 43.99 per cent. of the whole state tax, and that it has been entitled to that proportion on all taxes collected since 1898 when present law became effective and that it is entitled to recover about $500,000 which went into the treasury instead of the school fund. This is a very important ruling if it should be upheld by the court of appeals when the suit is brought to test its soundness.

MRS. MAYBRICK

Released After Imprisonment Of Many Years.

LONDON, July 20.—Mrs. Florence Maybrick, the American woman who has been imprisoned in England fifteen years for the murder of her husband, was released from custody today and sailed at once for France. She will join her mother, the Baroness Desjardines, and sail for New York and proceed to Louisiana to appear in a land suit which Judge Yarrow is conducting for her.

Her recent term of semi-custody was granted for the purpose of permitting her to regain her mental tone, which her long incarceration had impaired. Her mind is now in a normal condition.

Mrs. Maybrick's husband treated her like a brute and when he died of poisoning she was charged with murder and convicted on circumstantial evidence, and sentenced to life imprisonment. She at all times protested her innocence and powerful influences were brought to bear to secure her release.

silver advocates. This should be stopped at once. If Judge Parker is to be elected it must be done by the votes of more than six million men who voted for Bryan in 1896 and 1900, and not by the handful that ran Palmer and Buckner. The money question is no longer an issue—the discovery of immense quantities of gold in the Klondike and elsewhere having settled that matter—therefore, it should be dropped by all Democrats and they should hasten to get together on the live issues of the present. "Let the dead past bury its dead."

In 1896 and in 1900 Judge Alton B.
Parker voted for Wm. J. Bryan and now Bryan is to return the compliment.

When little Alton Parker gleefully ran to his mother with the great news that he had been appointed janitor of a building, and when Henry Davis was thrilled by his promotion to be brakeman on the B. & O., neither of them thought that these occurrences would have an effect on the presidential election of 1904.

bling in anticipation of condign pun-

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Ten Years of Suffering

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy," says
Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One can not say too much in favor of this wonderful medicine." This remedy is

BRYAN ON THE PLATFORM.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN.

(Special to New Era)
LINCOLN, Neb., July 16.—W. J.
Bryan has made public the following statement relating to the Democratic platform adopted at St. Louis:

"The plank on imperialism is positive, strong and satisfactory to the entire party, and this question becomes the paramount issue of the campaign.

"The tariff plank is good, but it was made so on a close vote in the committee and largely against the opposition of Mr. Parker's adherents.
The plank which was voted down favored a wise, conservative and businesslike revision, made "with due regard to existing conditions."
The committee thought that these qualifying words emasculated the plank and left it so weak as to give no hope to tariff reformers.

"The anti-trust plank is a good one. It demands the enforcement of the criminal clause of the law against she trusts; it demands the abolition of rebates and discriminations and it demands the withdrawal of interstate commerce privileges from trusts
when once convicted.

"The plank is infinitely superior to the Republican plank, and with a president who desired to destroy the trusts would be a sufficient plank but as this trust plank was also substituted by the full committee, there is reason to fear that it may not be in keeping with the ideas of the candidate.

"The labor plank is all that could be desired. It declares against government by injunction; it favors arbitration and the eight-hour day, and denounces the methods that have been resorted to in the Colorado strike, but as these planks were added in the full committee some uncertainty exists as to the candidate's position.
The platform declares in favor of the reduction of the army. Upon this the committee was unanimous.
The subcommittee reported a plank
in favor of an increase of the navy, but this was stricken out in the full committee.

"The platform has a plank in favor of the enlargement of the scope of the Interstate Commerce Commission and in favor of irrigation. The general clauses of the platform excite no dispute, and the appeal against the introduction of a race issue ought to have weight with the obor-thinking Americans.

"On the whole, the platform is good. From a western standpoint its greatest defect is that it makes no mention of the money question. An attempt was made to secure a plank opposing the melting of the silver dollar, opposing the asset currency and branch banks, and expressing a preference for the United States note (ordinarily known as the greenback) over the bank note, but having refused to put in a gold plank, the committee was not willing to have any phase of the money question alluded to.

"While the committee was re-affirming Kansas City, the arm was voted down, the committee was voted in favor of the money question, and the committee.

together with a few from the South,
stood together and secured enough changes in the platform to make it a presentable document and worthy of the support of the party."

Calmage Sermon

By Rev. Frank De Witt Talmage, D.D.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 17.—In this sermon a new construction is placed upon many of the "miracles of modern science," which are interpreted in the light of Christ's promise to his followers in John xiv, 12, "Greater works than these shall he do."

Man increases not his gospel faith by hearing the standards of the cross. Now might as well expect water to run uphill of its own accord, or violets to grow during midwinter in a snowbank, or daylight to follow after the sinking of the sun in the west, or the flash of health to be seen on the pale cheek of a corpse, or a humming bird to voluntarily make her nest in the dark labyrinth of a cave, as to expect that the Christ of the Gospels should be able to transform character to exist here.

Man increases not his gospel faith by hearing the standards of the cross. Now might as well expect water to run uphill of its own accord, or violets to grow during midwinter in a snowbank, or daylight to follow after the sinking of the sun in the west, or the flash of health to be seen on the pale cheek of a corpse, or a humming bird to voluntarily make her nest in the dark labyrinth of a cave, as to expect that the Christ of the Gospels should be able to transform character to exist here.

Christ Amazed His Generation. Jesus Christ was the amazement of his generation to the people of his day and to all generations. He seemed to be superior to all natural laws. When he went out to visit his disciples in their ship, he did not have to use the land, but other people had to do. He stepped down from the crystal pavement of Lake Galilee as easily as a fish.

Wonders of Modern Medicine. But today are the "wonders of modern medicine" any more marvelous than the "wonders of modern medicine?" Is the power of modern medicine to cure disease any more marvelous today than the power of modern bacteriological investigations to prevent disease? You see Christ stopping here and there to open a blinded eye or to untie a deaf ear or to loosen the heavy and labored breathing of the asthmatic sufferer.

Now, study Christ from another standpoint. What did Jesus come down upon earth to do? He came to save the world? Oh, yes; he came to save the world by drawing men unto himself and handing them over to Christ. That means men were to and tide and carry thousands of human beings, besides—tons upon tons of freight, from New York to Liverpool. Christ-feeding the multitudes with the five loaves and two fishes to me is wonderful, but man making the dry desert blossom as a rose by the stored up waters of irrigation, man making rain descend in regions where for centuries nature as a forbidding angel of the Edenic paradise has said "Thou shalt not," man making the fruits of the Asiatic climes to mate with the fruits of the California hills, man making steam engines to run without horses and gothard pass and disappear into a Houstonian tunnel, man making his air ships lighter than the atmosphere we breathe—all these are triumphs over natural forces so wonderful that I say, as I compare them with the phenomena of Christ's life, how truly has the promise been kept, "Greater works than these shall he do."

Wireless Telegraphy's Wonders. When I see an Edison making an electric light blaze and burn upon the tip end of a dirty piece of carbon; when I see the marvels of machinery, born with everything but a soul; when I see ice frozen in the tropics, and when I know that nations separated by broad seas are brought into speaking distance by wireless telegraphy, I know that one of the fulfillments of my text has come. "Anything which excites wonder, surprise or astonishment in the broad sense is a miracle," wrote the lexicographer. Surely Christ was alighting to man's triumphs in the world of natural phenomena when he said, "The works that I do shall be do also, and greater works than these shall he do, because I go unto my Father."

Not only did Christ astonish the people in his day by his power over the forces of nature, he revealed his divine nature by showing his power over physical diseases. He tried to convince the people in his day of his power as a healer of spiritual maladies by proving himself the cleanser of leper spots, the opener of blinded eyes and the only one of his time who could send the sluggish blood of health coursing through the withered limbs of him sick with the palsy. Yet today, as I study Christ, the healer of the sick, I see that the work he did has been taken up by his followers and its triumphs multiplied. By the word of his power he gave sight to a few blind men, but in our day the Christian surgeons, by their operations, are giving sight to thousands. The virtue from his garment stopped one issue of blood, but in our day the Christian physician, with his medications, is stopping thousands of issues. Christ's touch relieved a few sufferers of pain, but in the hospitals of our time thousands pass painlessly through suffering which in former times would have racked them with excruciating torture.

If you would, however, read Professor White's marvelous collection of facts in his book entitled "The Wonders of Modern Surgery." Up to 1870, 80 per cent of all those who had fractured leg or arm with the bone protruding through the skin died. Now, through the discoveries resultant from the life's work of Sir Joseph Lister, practically all those with fractured limb bones get well. Once when a gangrened leg had to be amputated a shrieking, yelling patient was held down by man's strength and the leg cut off as quickly as possible, as a butcher with his ax would chop meat. Then the bleeding stump was seared with boiling pitch. Seventy-five per cent of those patients died. Now such operations are considered practically harmless. A whiff of ether, a breath of chloroform, a deep sleep, a painless operation, and the heavy eyelids open. All the horrors of that operation are a blank. Our uncles, our aunts, our parents, our grandparents, died by the hundreds of inflammation of the bowels. Along comes surgery and says: "Down on the table quick! Out with that appendix." And today clubs could be formed by the hundreds of those who would have died of appendicitis unless death had been driven back at the point of the surgeon's knife.

Wonders of Modern Medicine. But today are the "wonders of modern medicine" any more marvelous than the "wonders of modern medicine?" Is the power of modern medicine to cure disease any more marvelous today than the power of modern bacteriological investigations to prevent disease? You see Christ stopping here and there to open a blinded eye or to untie a deaf ear or to loosen the heavy and labored breathing of the asthmatic sufferer. But today the achievements of the healer include more than here and there an isolated physical cure. I see the lights in thousands of hospital windows gleaming like the stars in the heavens. I see the white-robed nurses and the doctors coming forth as did the angels of comfort who troubled the waters at the pool of Bethesda, crying to the sick everywhere, "Come and be cured of your ailments!" I see thousands and tens of thousands of strong men and women who would have died twenty years younger than they are now had they lived and been sick in the days when Christ lived and he had seen them not or touched them not. Christ as the physician of the body was a wonder worker. But man today as a curer of physical ailments is accomplishing far more than Christ ever did. Man is not only opening the eyes of those born blind, but he is making by the thousand and the tens of thousands the deaf and the dumb speak until this ancient miracle has ceased to be a wonder because of its commonness.

Now, study Christ from another standpoint. What did Jesus come down upon earth to do? He came to save the world? Oh, yes; he came to save the world by drawing men unto himself and handing them over to Christ. That means men were to become followers of himself. Yet, after he came to earth and was born in the manger and lived in Nazareth, he literally became the "despised and rejected of men." After he had lived and suffered, preached and worked on and on until the day when he was crucified, the converts he had won were only a little handful of followers at the foot of his cross. If I should take you to a country pastor and say, "Rev. Mr. So-and-so, how large is your church?" he would say: "Oh, very small. We have only six score members all told. But we are part of the great Presbyterian church, with its hundreds of thousands and millions of members. Therefore we are proud to belong to the great body of this church militant." But Jesus when he died did not have any great church. He was only one hundred and twenty disciples with one hundred and twenty worldly standpoint Christians. From a worldly standpoint Christ's life seemed to be an abject failure. Do you wonder that Christ said to his disciples in the words of my text, "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do?" How has the promise been fulfilled in the great teachers and organizers of the Christian church? Inspired by his life and teaching, men have arisen whose achievements, as far as they can be measured by numbers, have surpassed a thousandfold those of their Divine Master.

Growth of the Y. M. C. A. Compare if you will the rapid advancement of Christianity during the century just passed with the seemingly paltry number of 120 whom Christ gathered about him in Jerusalem during his earthly ministry. In 1944 George Williams of London organized the first Y. M. C. A. association of the world. Forty-six years later, as a direct outgrowth of his work, there were 6,425 different Y. M. C. A. associations with their enrollment of 600,000 members, with property worth over $28,000,000. In 1845 William Booth, a humble Methodist minister, stepped out of the church of his birth and in Nottingham, England, organized the Christian Mission, the outgrowth of which is the modern Salvation Army. In thirty-five years that army, as a direct result of William Booth's work, had 11,000 officers stationed in all parts of the world, holding annually over 2,000,000 meetings and possessing its own printing press, scattering forth 43,000,000 pamphlets and papers of gospel news and with an income of nearly $4,000,000 per year. In 1839 Francis E. Clark, a comparatively unknown minister, organized his young people into a band of Christian workers, called the Christian Endeavor society. He is called "Father" Clark now, not, however, because he is an old man, but because he was the father of a movement which in twenty years had a society with nearly 4,000 members. Consider the work of John Wesley. Consider the first band of 120 members with the conversations under the power of the Holy Ghost. Whitefield, Finney, Moody. These men led the people by the tens of thousands to kneel at the foot of the cross. Tell me, in reference to the criterion of number, has not man as a preacher and a Christian organizer done "greater things" than did Christ?

But, again, in this worldwide sweep of man's "greater works" we must see how man is everywhere overturning the heathen doctrine that "might makes right" rather than "right makes might." We must see man as the friend of the weak man, the hope of the helpless man, the friend of the bereft man and in one sense the rescuer of the lost. Christ comes as the friend of the friendless. But, oh, how friendly! James Morrison in a wonderful review of the works of Christ's life pictures him as a mighty conqueror. Even in his defeats he saw the oncoming conquests. Said this mighty pulpiteer: "He strode on to victory. From his life's standpoint he saw as the consequence of his triumphal ascent to his Father the overthrow of Phariseism and Sadduceism. He looked farther and saw the overthrow of Roman and Grecian and Scythian idolatry. He looked farther and saw the destruction of slavery. He looked farther and saw the gradual emancipation of the masses from the oppression of tyrants and their elevation into political and social privileges. He looked farther and saw the erection of hospitals and other institutions of benevolence. He saw the establishment of the hand of home missions extending to the hundreds of thousands, who have japed and the establishment on the other hand of foreign missions, sending the gospel of his grace to the ends of the earth in hundreds of tongues." But, though Christ in his exaltation and prophetic vision may have seen all this, yet, like Moses, with his eyes overlooking the verdant fields of the promised land, Christ was to have no direct physical contact in the consummation of the world's salvation.

Christ Never Visited India. All India was yet to give up its wild and burning and the tossing of its helpless girl infants into the Ganges to be eaten by crocodiles and the heathen worship of idols, but Christ was in the soul of India. William Carey and Alexander Duff and Bishop Thoburn were to do that. Africa, with its murder and rapine and cannibalistic orgies, was to build its altars to the worship of the "true God," but Christ, as a physical man, never penetrated into those dark missionary fields. A Livingston, a Taylor and a Hartzell were to do that. Europe at that time shaking under the tread of the Roman legions; North and South America utterly unknown to civilization; the islands of the sea, most of them unvisited—all are yet to bow to Christ and come under the reign of love and gentleness and purity and truth. These are to be won through the instrumentality of men. Men energized by the Holy Spirit are to gain the whole world for him. Truly, as we look at such a conquest and compare it with the work that he accomplished in Palestine we see what he meant when he said, "Greater things than these shall ye do." Christ saw all this future conquest of the world, but as a man he never went away from the Palestine hills. He grew up in Nazareth. He journeyed from Nazareth a few times to Jerusalem. There at the Davidic capital he was at last led as a guilty criminal out to the Calvary heights to ignominiously die. To his followers he left the stupendous task of evangelizing the world, promising that he would be with them to the end and that through his power they should be able to win more souls than he had done.

But though we have been praising man's "greater works" we would have you bear well in mind this one tremendous fact. No work of man is truly greater than Christ's work, because all of man's greater works are the outcome of Jesus' work. If you read the verse in which my text is found you will find the whole trend of the thought in the one word "because." "He shall do greater works than these because I go to my Father." Because Christ is in God and God is in us is the reason man is able to accomplish greater works than did Christ.

Never be deluded by the idea that man in his own strength is able to do anything apart from God. This idea seems to be running riot among many weak brains. A short time ago I stood upon one of the Pasadena hills and looked off upon the mighty peak of Mount Lowe, lifting itself above the clouds. There in the valley at my feet were the California orange groves and the flower gardens and the trees which have made this land famous all around the world. "Do you see that little hill yonder?" said a gentleman by my side. "Yes," I answered. "That hill," said he, "looks much lower than we are." "It certainly does," I replied. "That hill must be at least three hundred feet below us." "But it is not," he answered. "That hill seems lower because yonder lofty mountain is back of it. Water from that hill flows down to this hill. That hill yonder is much higher than we are." So some people, standing upon man's "greater works," seem to think man's throne is higher than Christ's throne. But it is not. Only as Christ's life in its influence touches our lives are we able to do the "greater works" which are given man to do.

Revealing Power of Christianity. "Oh, no," says some one, "that cannot be. Some of the greatest inventors, some of the greatest statesmen, some of the greatest American men have been agnostics and did not believe in Christ at all. How then could they get their power from God?" By the law of association. The influence of Christianity is an elevating, civilizing, inspiring power. Even those who are personally strangers to it are affected by the atmosphere it produces. Have you not noticed that nearly all inventors, nearly all true progress, nearly all the world's best blessings are found in Christian lands alone. It is said that one day the great landscape painter, Joseph Turner, came into the studio of that other famous English artist, T. Sidney Cooper. Looking about at the pictures Turner saw one and gave a gasp with his brush, saying, "Put that pillar up. It destroys the breadth of the picture." A short time after Gillott, the great artist of London, heard what Turner had done, he came to Cooper and said, "I will give you three hundred pounds for your picture of the Welsh scene." "But," said Sidney Cooper, "Gillott, you have not even seen my picture." "I know it," answered Gillott. "But I also know one fact, Joseph Turner never before had touched that picture with his brush. And he thinks God blesses the just and often the unjust in a Christian land, because Christ's work and sacrifice have been blessed in that land. Therefore, my brethren, the only way for man to achieve his greater work is by spreading abroad, as far as he can, the works of Jesus Christ, upon which all men's greater works are dependent. When Christ goes up, man goes down. When Christ goes down, man goes down."

Oh, what could Moses' rod have done, Had he not been directly sent? The power was from God alone, And Moses but the instrument.

Today you will not feel that you can only accomplish the greater work Christ has given to you to do by living and working in Christ? When Marshall Bernadotte, who afterward became King Charles XIV. of Sweden, was a young man he was a revolutionist. At the beheading of King Louis XVI. of France, in order to show his hysterical joy, he had tattooed upon his arm this sentence: "Death to all kings and royal tyrants." Bernadotte afterward was himself raised to a throne. He closely guarded that tattooing from the eyes of his people until he was dead. Oh, my friend, marked with the signs of infamy upon your heart, marked with the signs of rebellion against Christ, will you not change your belief, as Bernadotte did, to become an enthroned king? You bear on your soul the marks of sin, but if you will come to him he will take you into his employ and will send you forth to bless and help the world. As the apostle bore on his body the marks of the Lord Jesus, so you may wear the badge of his service and in his name and by his power carry on the work that he began. To you, too, the promise is given, "He that believeth on me the works that I do shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do, because I go to my Father." NEGRO QUESTION

WILL BE PROMINENT IN THE CAMPAIGN.

Barber Shop Matters at Oyster Bay.—Teddy's Latest Break.

(Special to New Era.)

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Reports from West Virginia and Maryland indicate that the negro question will be a vital issue of politics in those states, and that it will be one of the principal topics of discussion in Indiana and Illinois and in certain localities in Ohio. A number of southern speakers are to discuss it in the North, not in the fire-eating partisan way, but in the calm-est possible manner, in an endeavor to bring it closely home to the Northern voters.

Made Teddy Mad.

ST. LOUIS, July 18.—Because he incurred the displeasure of President Roosevelt by raising the race question at the World's Fair, Lieut. C.
Sidney Haight, military aid to President D. B. Francis, is understood to have resigned his position. It is also understood that his resignation has been accepted. Lieut. Haight says he is not at liberty to discuss the matter. The expedition officials are silent. One of Lieut. Haight's duties has been the locating of military organizations coming to the fair. Learning that the Eighth Illinois regiment was composed of negroes, he wrote the Colonel of the regiment, asking if they would mind going into camp apart from the white troops and bringing their own equipment.

The Colonel of the negro regiment construed this as an insult, and wrote back that the regiment would not come. He also complained to President Roosevelt, who, it is understood, promptly complained to President Francis of the action of his military aid.

All Need Shaves.

OYSTER BAY, July 18.—The incident of David Newport, the white barber, who refused to shave a negro preacher, is not closed. A petition is now being signed by all the negroes in town, to be presented to President Roosevelt, protesting against the action of Newport and asking the chief executive to see that the negroes get their "rights."
It has been rumored that several negroes would soon go in a body to Newport's shop and demand to be shaved. If this is refused them, then, they say, they will leave the place in such condition that carpenters, painters and plasterers will be needed to put the shop in such order that any one else can be shaved.

On the other hand, Newport, the barber, says he is ready for all comers and declares he has a heavy stick and a revolver ready for any unwelcome visitors.

FAIR WILL BE GIVEN IN AUGUST.

Citizen of Adjoining County

(Special to New Era.)

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., July 18.—
The stockholders of the Montgomery Fair association met Saturday morning. The annual meeting, which has been announced to take place at Dunbar's Cave on Sept. 22-24, was changed to Aug. 26-27 on account of the equinoctial period through which there are unsettled weather condition, and to give the school teachers and children an opportunity to attend the fair before the opening of the schools on Sept. 1. The stock of the association was limited to fifty shares. The entire amount has been subscribed.

Robert Shelby, 21 years old, who lived at Jordan Springs, has disappeared, and his parents have been unable to find any trace of him since Tuesday, June 7. He left home on Monday, June 6, for Clarksville to see the Sell-Downs circus. He spent part of Tuesday in the city, but has not been heard from since, and his parents fear he has met with some accident. They have been unable to gain any information which might lead to his discovery. He is 5 feet 8 inches in height, weighs about 160 pounds and has large blue eyes.

SALE RAPIDLY INCREASING

Has Cured Hundreds of L. L.
Elgin's Customers.

One of the greatest successes in the sale of a medicine has been achieved by Mi-o-na, the dyspepsia remedy, and its sale is increasing so rapidly that L. L. Elgin, the popular druggist, has hard work to keep a stock on hand.

It is very popular with well known bankers, ministers, lawyers and others whose business or profession keeps them closely confined, while those who have brought on indigestion through irregular eating, worry or other causes, have found a cure in this reliable remedy.

Mi-o-na is in the form of small tablets and is sold in a metal box especially designed for convenience in carrying the medicine in the pocket or purse. It is pleasant to take; costs but 50c, gives quick relief and makes lasting cures.

This remedy has been so uniformly successful and made so many remarkable cures that L. L. Elgin will in future sell Mi-o-na under a positive guarantee to refund the money
if it should not cure. No other dyspepsia medicine ever had a large enough percentage of cures so that it could be sold in this manner. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of this remedy.

There is no time like the present to do a thing that ought to be done.
If any one has dyspepsia, today is the best time to begin curing it.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Miss Sally P. Leonard, of Eddyville, Wants $25,000.

(Special to New Era.)

NEW YORK, July 15.—Miss Sally P. Leonard, of Eddyville, Ky., an actress, has brought suit through her guardian at item, Robert C. Clarke, against Alexander C. Higginson, son of a Boston banker, to recover $25,000.

Miss Leonard states that in January, 1904, in consideration of her remaining in this city, and not returning to her home, the defendant told her that he would provide for her support and take care of her until such time as she could return to her father's home or secure other adequate means of support. The complaint also states that Higginson promised to pay two drafts of $50 each that she made on her father.

The complainant further states that at the time the agreement was made Higginson's wife was suing for divorce in Massachusetts and secured her decree in April last. Since that time, the plaintiff avers, the defendant has discontinued paying her as agreed and has also failed to pay the drafts.

LESSON IV. THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, JULY 24.

Text of the Lesson. II Chron. xix, 1-11—Memory Verses, 4-6—Golden Text, II Chron. xix, 11—Commentary Prepared by W. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.]

It is pleasant, as well as profitable, to continue meditating upon one who did right in the sight of the Lord (xx, 32), for he sought to the Lord God of his father, and walked in His commandments, and his heart was lifted up in the ways of the Lord, and the Lord was with him (xvii, 3-6). He is said to have reigned twenty-five years (xx, 31), but it is possible that three of those years were the last years of Asa, his father, while he was diseased in his feet. In order to keep before us some idea of where we are in the history of these two kingdoms, it would be well to consult a comparative chronological table of the kings and prophets of Judah and Israel, such as may be found in the appendix of most of our good reference Bibles. In a Baxter Bible it is New Testament, page 194.

From this it will be seen that the twenty-two years of Ahab's reign in Israel were about contemporary with the first twenty-two years of Jehoshaphat's reign in Judah. The prophets of the time were Jehu, the son of Hanani, in Judah, and Micaiah and Elijah, in Israel. It will help us to keep this in mind, as our next lesson concerns Ahab, and the six following keep Elijah before us. None of the prophets whose writings we have have up to this time appeared. Jonah, who is the first, comes later.

Our lesson begins with the return of Jehoshaphat in peace to Jerusalem from the battle with the king of Syria, in which he had been an ally with Ahab and very narrowly escaped death. Ahab, although disguised, fell by a God directed arrow from a bow drawn at a venture (xviii, 28-34). Jehoshaphat began his reign exceedingly well and sent teachers throughout all the cities of Judah with the book of the law of the Lord to teach the people, one result being that the fear of the Lord fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands roundabout Judah, and they made no war against Jehoshaphat. The Philistines and Arabians brought presents as well as tribute to him, so that he waxed great exceedingly and had riches and honor in abundance (xvii, 9-12).

Then came his alliance with a man who did more to provoke the Lord God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him (xviii, 1; I Kings xvi, 33). He allowed his son Jehoram to take Ahab's daughter to wife (II Kings viii, 18), and also joined Ahab to fight against the king of Syria (chapter 18), hence the reproach of our Lord through Jehu in our lesson, "Shouldst thou help the ungodly and love them that hate the Lord?" (Verse 2.) One feels like saying, Why could not Jehoshaphat let ungodly Ahab alone and continue, as he had begun, to walk with God? But is not this matter of worldly alliances the prominent sin of our own time? In marriage, in business, in religious matters, is it not seen everywhere? How few seem to give any consideration to II Cor. vi, 14-18, and are there many even among God's ministers who think it wrong to have fellowship with those who deny that Jesus Christ is God, or with those who deny that the blood of Christ alone, without any works of ours, can take away sin?

The manner of Jehoshaphat's life was, as a rule, right in the sight of the Lord, although there were two very dark clouds in his clear day, the one we have mentioned, and later his alliance with Ahab (xx, 35-37). But it is refreshing to see him in the remainder of our lesson chapter, after the Lord reproved him, going out through all the people to bring them again to the Lord, setting judges in the land and admonishing them in such words as "Take heed what ye do, for ye judge not for man, but for the Lord who is with you" (verses 5-7), saying also to the priests and Levites: "Thus shall ye do in the fear of the Lord, faithfully and with a perfect heart. Take courage and do, and the Lord shall be with the good" (verses 9, 11, and margin). These are words for us to lay to heart, for only such living and acting will stand in that day. None other can have His approval (II Tim. ii, 15). On the words "Take heed" see Luke viii, 18; Mark iv, 24, "Take heed how ye hear and what ye hear." Also Matt. xxiv, 4, "Take heed that no man deceive you." Isa. vii, 4, "Take heed and be quiet. Fear not." As to the Lord's hatred of iniquity, respect of persons and taking of gifts, see Ex. xxiii, 8; Deut. x, 17; Job xxiv, 19; Rom. ii, 11; Eph. vi, 9.

As we have but one lesson on the life of this great king we must not omit a glance at chapter 20, and the victory which the Lord wrought for His people. Realizing their helplessness, they cast themselves wholly upon Him, and the Lord fought against their enemies and made them to rejoice over their enemies, and gave them rest round about (verses 3, 4, 27-30). Note the king's prayer (verses 6-12) and put verse 12 with xiv, 11: "We have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do. But our eyes are upon Thee." These are the people whom God helps, the impotent, the utterly helpless, not those who can help themselves. Note, also, verses 15, 17, 20, 22, and learn to fear not, believe and praise.

This whole hearted reliance upon the Lord made so prominent in this lesson and the last is greatly needed.

1851--HOMOEOPATHY--1901.

By GEO. B. PECK, M. D., PROVIDENCE, R. I.

To have covered with conscious existence the last half of the nineteenth century is a benison. The contemplation of its achievements is ample excuse for complaisant satisfaction. To us as a people it has been what the time of David was to Palestine, of Philip to Macedonia and of Cromwell to England. From an alleged confederacy we have become a nation whose boundaries Hawaii included, lie in closer proximity than during the fifties, while the far off Philippines are under more intimate and more perfect control than were the regions of the Rockies and the Pacific slope at that date. Commensurate progress has been made in the arts and sciences. None of these, however, have advanced more rapidly than Homoeopathy. While in 1851 her disciples numbered but 600 (estimated); they now muster 9,684, an increase of fifteen fold. Our population then was twenty-three and a half millions, while now in the same territory seventy-six millions reside, a gain of but three-fold. The number of doctors then of all sorts was 40,564, one in sixty eight of whom were members of the New School; now there are 123,553 to whom we stand as one in thirteen. Observe our ratio has increased four-fold, but the totality only two-fold. Remember also that the first prescription made within our borders pursuant to the margin, Similia similibus curentur, was by a German immigrant in 1835.

In 1851 we had but one national medical society, the American Institute of Homoeopathy, with 250 members; now in addition to that with its 2,002 members, an increase of seven fold, there are seven others devoted to the development of certain features of the Law of Cure or to the cultivation of recognized specialties. Then there was but one sectional society, the Western Institute; now there are two, the Missouri Valley and the Southern Homoeopathic Medical Associations, both in hearty accord with the American Institute. Then there were but ten state societies; now there are thirty-five, including the Washington Homoeopathic Medical society of the District of Columbia, which should be so rated. Twenty-nine of these muster 3,393 souls, or more than six times our entire force in that ancient day. Then there were but eight local societies; now 116 of which sixty-eight or a trifle over one-half enroll 3,358 physicians. But in order to attain still greater professional efficiency forty-six clubs have been organized with a limited membership and more thorough work. Thirty-six of these report 634 associates.

Half a century ago there were but two Homoeopathic medical colleges located in Philadelphia and Cleveland respectively; now twenty two are scattered at convenient intervals from Massachusetts Bay to the Golden Gate. Of these THREE ARE CO-ORDINATE DEPARTMENTS of state universities. Their graduate lists contain not less than 13,517 names.

In 1851 the tiny hospital at Philadelphia was the only one we possessed in this broad land; now there are ninety-two general public hospitals, eighty-five of which contain 5,363 beds, which we either own or have the right to use, and forty-five special public hospitals, forty-two of which hold 8,516 similar beds. Furthermore, we have fifty-two general private hospitals, of which forty-two contain 1,515 beds and thirty-six special private, of which twenty-six have 643 beds. The New School holds, therefore, 18,087 beds in 195 different hospitals, those in 143 being worth $18,331,958.00, with thirty more to hear from, certainly not a bad exhibit for one variety of the fruitage of fifty years of labor. But in addition it maintains not less than seventy-one dispensaries, thirty-nine of which issued during the past year 520,728 prescriptions to 221,496 applicants, while in 1851 there were but three dispensaries, one connected with each of the two medical schools and one in New York city.

In January, 1851, six Homoeopathic medical journals were striving to maintain a precarious existence; that is to say, on earlier dates, and also on later they appeared as frequently as copy and as funds permitted. Between March and the close of the year five others sprang into existence, but all alike perished during that semi-decade. On the first of February appeared the initial number of that periodical whose semi-centennial this issue commemorates. Today thirty magazines regularly file an appearance containing not less than 16,808 pages of non-advertising matter in single copies of their respective annual issues."

DAIRING WOMAN RIDER INJURED IN EXCITING CHASE BY INDIANS.

Only Incident to Mar Success of Opening Day at Guthrie Fair.—Great Carnival Features and Racing Program.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The Guthrie fair was inaugurated Tuesday with an attendance of about 8,000. Mrs. Carry Nation delivered an interesting lecture and the Guthrie derby was a fine race. The Kemp Wild West show gave a program that pleased everybody. Miss Kemp one of the performers, in the realistic chase by Indians allowed her foot to hang in the stirrup of her saddle and was thrown to the ground, sustaining serious thought not fatal injuries.

Mrs. Nation will lecture again today, and will then come to Hopkinsville to visit her uncle, Squire Alex Campbell.

The fair is under the management of the firm of Givens, Rash & Francisway and they have left nothing undone to make the week one of continued pleasure.

There are numerous free acts, making the fair as good along this line as a big circus, and the racing program is excellent. At night carnival features will be given, the grounds being lighted by electric lights.

The fairs under the special direction of Givens, Rash and Francisway are all conducted on the principle of morality and cleanliness and no person contemplating a visit to either Guthrie or Madisonville need have any fear of being thrown into contact with rowdies or questionable characters. The fair at Madison, Ill., which closed Saturday, was a wonderful success. Next week the company will conduct a fair at Madisonville.

will leave tomorrow for Bay View, Mich., to spend several weeks.
